The City of Nokomis Police Department is accepting applications for certified and non-certified full-time and part-time Police Officers. You must be 21 years of age, pass a background check including finger prints and drug screening, and have a high school diploma or equivalent and a valid driver's license. The successful applicant should have computer, communication, problem solving and multi-tasking skills. The candidates will be honest, ethical, fair and willing to assist all citizens as well as enforcing state, federal, and municipal laws. Applications may be picked up at the Nokomis City Hall or the Nokomis Police Department. Applications must be returned no later than June 5, 2018 by 4pm. Applicants that have not completed the Basic Law Enforcement Training must be able to meet the required physical fitness standards set by the State of Illinois for entry into the academy.
